

HOT PAVES TEMPERED

Timely Breeze Saves the City from Heat Record.

CARS AND BOATS CROWDED

Many Washingtonians Hie to Cool Resorts, to Spend Sunday, and Evening Brings Pleasant Recreation at Many Places—Weather Bureau Forecasts High Temperature.

A gentle southern breeze was all that saved yesterday from being the hottest day of the summer. Hundreds of Washington people missed it by going out of town.

According to Weather Prophet Moore, the breeze is going to keep right on blowing, at least through the early part of the week.

Every boat down the river carried a big crowd. Downtown streets were comparatively deserted. A Marine Band concert at Chevy Chase Lake last night attracted many, and every car going out was loaded to its capacity.

Resorters Find It Pleasant.

On the river it was delightfully cool, and the hundreds that went to Marshall Hall, River View, and Colonial Beach came back refreshed and ready for another week of work. Cabin John Bridge and Glen Echo were crowded all day, and the crowds did not start coming home until the streets had cooled off.

"The general pressure distribution over the North American continent and the adjacent oceans is such as to indicate that the coming week will be one of high temperature throughout the greater part of the country east of the Rocky Mountains and in the extreme Southwest," says a weather bulletin given out last night. "A disturbance over the Great Lakes will move eastward and cause local showers and thunderstorms to form in the Lower Lake region, Northern New York, and Northern New England."

Northwest to Be Stormy.

"Another disturbance will appear in the Northwest Monday or to-morrow and move thence eastward along the northern border and reach the St. Lawrence Valley by the 29th. It will be attended by local rains. There are no indications of general rains during the week, and such may occur will be confined mostly to the Northern States from the Missouri Valley to New England and the Southeastern States."

"Indications are that strong southwest and west winds will prevail during the coming week over the North Atlantic steamship routes, and the weather will be showery the greater part of the week over Northern Europe and the British Isles."

The wedding was a surprise, and the reception a countersurprise. It was to avoid the reception that the couple slipped away. They came back as man and wife the same day. Yesterday they were invited to their own wedding reception.

Mrs. Sacks is the daughter of A. S. Levitt, of 77 Myrtle avenue northeast, while the bridegroom is a young dry goods man.

WOMAN IS BADLY BURNED

Lamp Explodes in Her Home and Flaming Oil Inflames Serious Injuries—Public Shelter in Rock Creek Park Damaged While Promoters Look On—Loss $300.

Four small fires, aggregating in damage about $300, gave as many companies of the department hard runs yesterday. Box 412 was pulled about 2 o'clock for a fire caused by an exploding oil lamp in the home of Frank Jacobs, at 223 Seventh street southwest. Mrs. Jacobs was badly burned about the face and hands by the burning oil. Her wounds were dressed by a physician. About $25 damage was done.

Officer Kavanaugh, of the Tenth precinct, discovered a blaze in the public shelter in Rock Creek Park about 4 o'clock, and sent in an alarm to No. 22 Engine Company. Three hundred dollars damage resulted before the fire was extinguished. It is not known how the fire originated.

A defective flue caused $100 damage at 713 Thirteenth street northwest yesterday noon. The fire was extinguished before the arrival of the firemen.

Fire of unknown origin did $15 damage about 3 o'clock at the home of Viola Palmer, 2153 Eighth street northwest.

JOHNSON TO ARRIVE HERE IN FEW DAYS

Police to Look After Negro Fight Champion.

Mad. Sylvester has made arrangements to take care of Jack Johnson when he arrives in Washington this week. All proprietors of negro hotels have been ordered by the police to notify headquarters in the event of the negro fighter's stopping at any one of them.

Johnson's living quarters will be carefully watched by the bluecoats, so as there will be no clashes between the whites and blacks.

A telegram was received in the city yesterday from the fighter saying that he would be in Washington sometime before Saturday.

Johnson is not working in New York vaudeville this week, and before coming to the Capital will spend several days in Philadelphia.

In celebration of the advent of Johnson's coming, the negroes have arranged a great picnic at Washington Park. The event will take place some day next week.

DIAMOND THEFT FAKE

Police and Hotel Manager Stamp "Yellow Journal."

AN INJUSTICE IS CHARGED

Letter of Prominent Young St. Louisian Is Cited to Show that He Was Not Robbed, as Printed in Flaming Headlines in Morning Paper Without Foundation.

In a spectacular front-page story a Washington morning newspaper yesterday published what purported to be a thrilling account of a $3,000 diamond robbery at a prominent hotel. The story brought in the name of a well-known St. Louis attorney, and bore a serious reflection upon the character of the hotel.

The truth or falsity of the story can best be attested by the statement of the manager of the hotel. "It is a bold, barefaced lie, without foundation of the slightest character,"

Denied by the Police.

Police officials denied that any such robbery had occurred, and a query to Mr. Bakewell, the man supposed to have been robbed, brought forth a complete denial.

The correct statement is as follows, detailed in a message from Paul Bakewell, jr., from Warm Sulphur Springs, Va.:

"On Sunday, July 19, my wife and I visited Washington. We spent much of our time in visiting public buildings and places of interest. Somewhere about the city Mrs. Bakewell lost a diamond bar pin, valued at about $1,000. I offered a $50 reward for its recovery, and took steps to have the pawn shops of the city notified of the loss."

As an example of yellow journalism, a story proclaiming its falsity by its very construction from nothing, based upon a lurid imagination and a fine disregard for propriety, the article stands in a class by itself, the police say.

GETTYSBURG WON BY DISTRICT HERO

for about 8 o'clock in the evening, or later.

A provisional brigade inspection made at the request of the War Department was held at 8 o'clock this morning. It was for the purpose of obtaining for the War Department pictures of troops in full war footing. Both regulars and militia men participated in the event, which was not only spectacular, but carried out with precision. Every arm of the service was represented.

District Militiamen Honored.

Honors were shown the District militiamen by selecting Lieut. Col. G. B. Young, Second Regiment, as second in command of the 1500 troops inspected by Brig. Gen. Wetherington. Lieut. Col. Young was the only militia officer who acted as a field officer. The companies from the District in line were:

Company E, Capt. C. E. Edwards.

Company K, Capt. William R. McCallahan, both of the Second.

Company B, Capt. Samuel Feland.

Company C, Capt. Robert B. Johnson, both of the First.

Rev. Lloyd Douglas, chaplain of the First Regiment, N. G. D. C., conducted services at the Y. M. C. A. pavilion tonight, following the band concert given by the Fifteenth U. S. Cavalry Band.

Services were also held in the morning. It was learned to-night that permission has been asked of the War Department to have the men and horses of the Fifteenth Cavalry return to Fort Myer, Va., by train instead of marching back as proposed. This is due to the condition of the horses from "poisoned hay."

It is believed that the permission asked will be approved. Every organization of the regular army is compelled to march at least 200 miles each year, and it was proposed to bring this about when camp breaks here on July 31.

Many Visitors from District.

An excursion from Washington to the camp of instruction brought hundreds of visitors, and these included mothers, sweethearts, and others.

Two trains were needed to transport the Washington visitors. Special messes were served by the various organizations, and sightseeing, the band concert, the regimental parade in the evening, and guard mount served to give all a good time. The excursionists arrived at noon, and when they returned at 7 o'clock, the visitors felt well repaid for their trip.

Three Shanghai Banks Fail.

Shanghai, July 24.—The financial situation here is serious. Three native banks, controlled by the leading piece goods operators, have failed. Their failure involved the suspension of nine other banks. There have been meetings of the Taotai, bankers, piece goods guilds, and representatives of foreign banks, but nothing has been arranged.

"Took Him Up."

From Everybody's. "We were waiting for the elevator to come down," said a commercial traveler, "after discussing the probability of an aeroplane crossing the Atlantic within a year, when, just as the cage was about to ascend, one of the party said: 'I'll bet $10,000 that it won't be done'—and the elevator boy took him up."

Death of the Sergeant Who Taught Him Military Exercises as a Lad.

The Kaiser's old drill sergeant, Robert Lucke, has just died in Berlin, at the age of seventy-eight. The Kaiser never forgot him and whenever his eye fell upon him among the bodyguard at the palace he used to address a cheery word to him.

In 1863, young Prince Wilhelm, then eleven, and his sister, Princess Charlotte, now the wife of the hereditary Prince of Saxe-Meiningen, were intrusted to Lucke to be drilled in military exercises, extension motions they were called, and in shooting at a target with miniature rifles. Lucke left his regiment in 1868 and went into the royal bodyguard, but after a few years was taken into the mess office of the First Life Guards of Potsdam.

The last time the Kaiser saw him was at a jubilee of the regiment, when after the parade was over he shook him by the hand and said, "Well, my dear Lucke, but for you I would never have been as I have."

A parade of all the delegates has been arranged. J. C. Smith, of Columbia Lodge, is marshal-in-chief.

Delegates from all parts of the country are arriving in the city daily.

CHURCH HOUR AIDS IN DOUBLE THEFT

Houses Ransacked While Inmates Are at Service.

The police of two precincts are on the lookout for an unidentified sneak thief who got away with two clever jobs yesterday while his victims were at church.

At the home of Miss Lowell Hayden, 1016 Massachusetts avenue northwest, an upstairs room was ransacked and about $50 worth of jewelry taken. A gold bracelet, valued at $25, and an opal-set ring, valued at $20, together with several small articles, were taken from a jewel box.

Miss Minnie Bart, of 344 Maine avenue southwest, discovered the loss of an alligator hand bag, valued at $25, containing her watch, valued at $20, and several gold and silver toilet articles.

Miss Bart saw the thief coming from the house. The man said he was going to the home of a friend and had mistaken the street. He is described as being about thirty-five years old, five feet eight inches tall, and dressed in a brown suit and straw hat.
